HOW TO APPLY
Applicants wishing to be considered for admission to several Ontario universities should apply to the University of Toronto through the Ontario Universities’ Application Centre (OUAC) using the “105” application.

Applicants who are interested in applying ONLY to the University of Toronto, who reside outside of Canada and are not currently studying, nor have previously studied, in Canada may apply using the “University of Toronto International application”.

For more details about application procedures and deadlines, visit our website at future.utoronto.ca/apply/applying.

We encourage you to apply well in advance of the published deadlines. Spaces fill quickly and programs may close before the application deadlines.

The University of Toronto operates on an academic year rather than on a semester or quarter system. Students begin their studies in September and continue until May of the following year. The University of Toronto does not deal with agents and it does not recommend that applicants deal with agents.

DOCUMENT DEADLINES
Document deadlines vary by division. For a complete list of document deadlines visit future.utoronto.ca. We encourage you to submit all required documents well in advance of the posted deadlines. Spaces in programs are filled on an ongoing basis and programs may close before the published document deadlines.

Once we receive your application we will send you an email acknowledgement, including full information about the next steps in the application process.

APPLICATION DEADLINES
Early submission of both an application and supporting documents is strongly encouraged. For all secondary school applicants: The first round of decisions will be sent in late January. Applications that become complete after December will be reviewed for decisions in March, and a final round of decisions — spaces permitting — will be made in May. Applicants with postsecondary studies will be considered on an ongoing basis starting in January.

*Please note that our Bachelor of Information, Nursing, and Medical Radiation Sciences have admission prerequisites at the university level.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Applicants who have attained a high level of academic achievement and who completely satisfy prerequisites will be considered for admission. The minimum requirements for admission consideration vary by program. You must present all the requirements, including prerequisite courses, to be considered. All of our programs have limited spaces and the admission selection process is competitive. Some programs require a supplementary application; check faculty and program admission information for details. See also: English Language Requirements. For details regarding the admission requirements for each program, visit future.utoronto.ca and refer to the information that matches your academic background.

Student Permit/Visa
If you are not a citizen or permanent resident of Canada, you should apply for a study permit and entry visa (depending on citizenship) as soon as you receive your letter of admission from the University. You can obtain applications for these documents from a Canadian embassy or consulate before departing.

To obtain a study permit, international students must demonstrate to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada that they have sufficient resources to cover tuition and expenses for at least one year of university. Complete details can be found at www.cic.gc.ca.

Centre for International Experience
Adapting to a new cultural environment and a new education system may present some unexpected challenges. The Centre for International Experience is ready to help you with a wide range of services and programs. Visit cie.utoronto.ca.

Guardianship
If you are an international student under the age of 18, you may be asked by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada to find a Canadian citizen to act as a guardian. Your family is responsible for satisfying this requirement.
Transfer Applicants
Arts, Science, Business
(all campuses)

Applicants must meet the minimum admission requirements for their program. Refer to future.utoronto.ca for detailed information about requirements for your educational jurisdiction. Applicants who have completed studies beyond the minimum requirements at a recognized postsecondary institution will be considered for a maximum of two years of transfer credits. Transfer credits will be assessed after admission, and once the Transfer Credit Assessment application has been completed. Details will be provided after an offer of admission is made. Interviews may be required.

Applicants who already hold a bachelor's degree, or have completed more than two years of degree studies at another recognized postsecondary institution can only apply to a different field of study. For instance, students who have completed a degree in economics, management, commerce or business, cannot complete a Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Business Administration degree. If admitted to a different program, these applicants will be granted a maximum of one year of transfer credit (five full credit courses).

Undergraduate degree holders who wish to take additional undergraduate courses in their field, perhaps in order to qualify for graduate level studies, may consider applying for Non-degree studies. Please note that it may not be possible to register as a non-degree student in courses that are in high demand. Excellent academic achievement is required for admission consideration. Applicants admitted to other divisions may receive a statement regarding transfer credit assessment procedures at the time of admission or shortly thereafter or after registration.

Applicants who hold an undergraduate degree in Engineering cannot be offered admission to our undergraduate Engineering faculty.
